

THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

"Here, you bogtrotter," said a dandy to an Irish laborer, "come tell me the biggest lie you ever told in your life, and I'll treat you to the whiskey punch." "An' be me sowl," retorted Pat, "yer honor is a perfect gentleman."

It is reported that the Prince of Wales said to a fair partner at the ball in St. Louis: "Miss, don't you think my monstaches are becoming?" To which she replied, "Well, sir, they may be coming, but they haven't yet arrived." Rather pointed, if true.

"I will and bequeath," said an Irishman in his will, "to my beloved wife all my property without reserve, and to my oldest son Patrick one-half of the remainder, and to Dennis, my younger son, the rest. If anything is left, it may go to Terrence McCarthy, in sweet Ireland."

TERMS OF THE JOURNAL.

KEEP UP THE EXCITEMENT.—Remains always on hand, and since the great excitement about the removal of the Court House has subsided, the community generally have become somewhat excited upon hearing that Charly Watson has determined to pull up stakes and remove to Virginia. But the latest cause of excitement is the fact that I have removed my Saddle Shop from my old stand opposite the Court House to my new shop on Market street, nearly opposite the jail, where all who may favor me will be supplied with Saddles, Saddles, Bridles, Harness, Double Harness, Trug Harness, Bri-

I solicit a continuance of the same, and will sell as many new customers as can make it suit.

HOSSETTER'S STOM-ACH BITTERS.—The proprietors and Manufacturers of Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation here-before unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounts to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend it to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom. This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the merits of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the 'Bitters' are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to counteract declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and refreshing generally. We have evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangement and general debility; acting under the advice of a physician, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their minds are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in the extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period for maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities.
Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: suffer from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhoea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superinduced in val-lary persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.
